STATE POLICE ARREST MAN WANTED FOR FATAL BROCKTON SHOOTING

BROCKTON – A Brockton man is scheduled to face a murder charge tomorrow for the fatal weekend shooting of a 21-year-old man, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced.

State Police, Brockton Police and Boston Police arrested Brahden Hill (DOB: 09/21/95) at his father's apartment on Walnut Avenue in Dorchester just after 2 p.m. today. He is scheduled to be arraigned tomorrow morning on one count of Murder in Brockton District Court.

Just after midnight Saturday morning, Brockton Police were alerted to shots fired in the area of Turner and Haverhill Streets in Brockton. Upon arrival at 41 Haverhill Street, police found an unresponsive man on the sidewalk bleeding from a gunshot wound to the upper torso. The victim, identified as Edward J. Andrews (DOB: 11/11/94) of Brockton, was pronounced dead at 1:05 a.m.

Hill fled on foot from the scene in Brockton. Investigators located a witness who identified Hill as the shooter and it appears robbery was the motive. Hill fled on foot from the scene in Brockton and was tracked down by State Police today in Dorchester.

The case is being investigated by State Police assigned to the District Attorney's Office, Brockton Police and Boston Police.
